Language Policy and Courses

Istanbul Kent University Erasmus+ and International Programs Office; have introduced new English courses that are called 'OPEN COURSES' and 'SPEAKING CLUB', which is organized as 4 hours Grammar and 2 hours speaking lessons per week, in total of 40 grammar lessons and 20 speaking lessons in a period of 10-weeks, which are FREE OF CHARGE for the potential beneficiaries both as outgoing students and personnel who would like to participate to all projects within the framework of Erasmus+ Program, primarily for K103, and who register for the courses, to support them in terms of their English language proficiency Before Mobility.

First courses in A1-A2 level that were scheduled to be opened on Monday, April 6, 2020; have been postponed to a later date due to the Covid19 pandemic and are foreseen to be opened in 2020-2021 Fall Semester along with B1-B2 level courses.

It is thought that this language policy will be a significant benefit for the individuals who will participate in the mobility in terms of their academic and social integration during mobility.

Apart from Open Courses and Speaking Club classes, Istanbul Kent University students and personnel can also benefit at a discount from the opportunity to participate in many prestigious language schools at hours appropriate to their own school and business schedule, thanks to the University's location which is close to Taksim Square, the centre of the city.

The language policy for the incoming students and personnel within the framework of international mobility activities, is as follows: Istanbul Kent University will provide Turkish language support with Turkish courses within the university for the incoming students and personnel. Our incoming beneficiaries can also benefit at a discount from the opportunity to attend many prestigious language schools at hours appropriate to their own school and business schedule, thanks to the University's location which is close to Taksim Square, the centre of the city. It is thought that this language policy will be very useful during mobility in terms of the academic and social integration of the individuals who will participate in mobility.

Message for Incoming International Students and Staff

We are always looking forward to welcoming students and staff from all around the World with open arms. Likewise, we encourage our students and staff to participate in Erasmus+ K103 Mobilities.

Student mobility in particular, is our primary target for two main reasons; to make sure our students have the best opportunities to enhance themselves as capable, high-skilled professionals as well as tolerant and sensible world citizens, and to be able to contribute to the high-skilled employment demands and the scientific achievements and innovations of the European Education Area. Staff mobility has also a significant importance to us, since we value the personal and professional developments of our staff greatly, and are always excited to meet colleagues from around the World, appreciating their unique individual skills and professional know-how.

We, the Erasmus+ and International Programs Office, will do our very best to make sure our international guests make the most of their experience in our university and our beloved city, both from academic and social perspectives. We would like to welcome you with all the excitement for that you are about to experience in our energetic university and beautiful city; and when it is time to say goodbye, we would like for you to return safely to your homes with wonderful memories.

City of Istanbul and Istanbul Kent University

Istanbul is one of the fastest growing modern cities of the World in terms of; Education, Business, Finance, Technology, Healthcare, Fashion, Music, Culinary Arts, Entertainment, and much more. In that sense, Istanbul presents many opportunities of networking and business connections. International fairs, congress, seminars and panels are held in Istanbul.

Istanbul is one city with two continents; it represents both Europe and Asia. The beautiful Bosphorus that connects the city; is not only a lovely sight, but a crucial means of transportation in our daily lives. Visitors and locals may find many tours and cruises through the Bosphorus via <https://www.sehirhatlari.istanbul/en> and experience some unforgettable landscapes of the city.

Istanbul Kent University is located on the European side, in Taksim, the heart of the city. In Istanbul Kent University, you do not just have the opportunity to receive a high-quality education with the latest technology and some of the best academicians in the world, all experts in their respective fields; but you also get to receive that education right at the very center of the amazing Istanbul, with instant access to all that the city offers.

Istanbul and especially Taksim, has a rich cultural life with continuous concerts and music festivals, theatres, art exhibitions, film festivals, and more; supported by a vivid entertainment industry, and some of the best culinary experiences of the world. Some examples are; the famous Filmekimi Movie Festival, Istanbul International Film Festival, Istanbul Jazz Festival, Akbank Jazz Festival, Babylon and Peyote where international musicians perform, Istanbul International Book Fair, Beyoğlu Secondhand Book Festival, Istanbul International Biennial, Istanbul Tulip Festival, Istanbul International Music Festival, Chill-Out Festival Istanbul, Bosphorus Cross Continental Swim Race, Istanbul Marathon, Istanbul Coffee Festival, Istanbul International Theatre Festival, Istanbul International Gastronomy Festival, Istanbul Theme Park, Istanbul Aquarium etc.

Istanbul is one of the most ancient and one of the most modern cities of the world at the same time, and it is truly unique. Our city is home to many civilizations, and is immensely rich with multiple cultures. Istanbul is a city that values diversity and all cultures and beliefs. Students can visit 1483 years old Hagia Sophia Museum, 411 years old Blue Mosque, 545 years old Topkapı Palace Museum, 194 years old Dolmabahçe Palace, 559 years old Grand Bazaar, 356 years old Spice Bazaar, 672 years old Galata Tower, Basilica Cistern, the Museum of Innocence, Bosphorus, Golden Horn, Istanbul Archeology Museum, Museum of Turkish & Islamic Arts, Pera Museum, Istanbul Modern Art Museum, Borusan Contemporary, Private Sakip Sabanci Fine Arts Museum etc. All of the above mentioned places are located on the European side and are very close to our campus. Furthermore, many cultural centers such as French Cultural Centre, Spanish Cultural Centre, Japanese Cultural Centre and Italian Cultural Centre, where cultural activities are held, are located in Taksim as well.

For information on concerts and festivals throughout the year in Istanbul, and very close to our university; you may visit websites such as; <https://www.iksv.org/en> , <https://www.icec.org/home-page> , <https://crrkonsersalonu.ibt.istanbul/?CRRLang=tr-TR> , and <https://www.biletix.com/anasayfa/TURKIYE/en>

You may also benefit from weekend excursions travelling from Istanbul; and visit wonderful historical sites such as; Gobeklitepe-which is the first temple of the World, Nemrut, Aphrodisias, and Ephesus; all part of the UNESCO World Heritage. You may also take some time to experience the amazing natural landscape of Turkey in sites such as; the Rose Festival of Isparta, the Salda Lake, the city of Amasya, and Cappadocia.
